over the political situation. Murphy was well pleased with himself. He delivered the goods. Conners was not so well pleased. He pledged himself to carry Erie County for Hearst, but Erie County got away from him despite the fact that a bitter feud in the Republican ranks favored Hearst.

Mr. Conners is also disgruntled for his promises concerning the rural vote up-State. He assured Max Thunen in Buffalo that Hearst was solid with the farmers. But the farmers voted against Hearst.

Conners says that the defeat of Hearst was due to lack of money. It is understood that the allotment to leaders up-State averaged $1 to an election district.

JUDGES CALL ON MURPHY.

The conference was held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. From there Murphy and Conners went to Murphy's home in East Seventeenth street. The leader of Tammany Hall passed the Wigwam twice, but did not enter the doors. Nearly all the successful candidates on the Judiciary ticket called upon him at his home and congratulated him.

"The vote of yesterday," said Peter A. Hendricks to an Evening World reporter, "establishes Charles F. Murphy as the greatest leader Tammany Hall ever had, and I include Croker and Kelly. The vote justified his attitude in Buffalo. If he had not nominated Hearst Tammany Hall would have been annihilated and the Democratic party in this State would have been years in recovering from the blow."

DEMOCRATS VOTE, SCRATCHING HEARST.

In the greater city Mr. Hearst carried the five boroughs by the vote of 76,726.

Mr. Hearst's plurality in the city was offset by the tremendous Republican vote up-State. The manufacturing centres stuck to the candidate of the Democratic party and the Independence League.

But in the rock-ribbed counties the old-time Republican majorities were rolled up. Hearst carried only two counties up the State—Schoharie and Chemung. He reduced the pluralities in many of the counties, such as Monroe and Schenectady, although the city of Schenectady was a disappointment to the Hearst managers, who had expected to carry it by several thousands.

All told, Mr. Hearst carried only six of the sixty-one counties of the State, the two up the State and the four counties that go to make up the Greater City.

HEARST CARRIES BUFFALO BY 30.

In the city of Buffalo, the election was one of the most remarkable on record. Hearst carried the city by thirty votes, in a total of 56,000 votes cast.

In New York County Charles F. Murphy carried through all his Tammany judges, except one, Justice McAvoy, for the Court of General Sessions. Judge Rosalsky, taken from the Republican ticket by the Independence League, was elected.

Tammany elected all the Assemblymen. It was possible to elect under the new apportionment and all the Senators. Up the State, the Republicans are reported to have elected the usual number of Senators and Assemblymen. The control of the next Legislature is in the hands of the Republicans, who probably will select a successor to Senator Thomas C. Platt, who has been quoted as saying he would resign if Hughes was elected and he was assured his successor would be a Republican.

STATE CANAL BOARD DEMOCRATIC.

The Canal Board, which will have large powers of control over the expenditures of the $95,000,000 left for State canal improvement, is composed of the following State officers: Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Comptroller, State Treasurer, Attorney-General, Superintendent of Public Works and State Engineer and Surveyor.

The Governor appoints the Superintendent of Public Works, who executes all work on the canal; but if the entire Democratic State ticket has been elected except the head, the Canal Board for the next two years, with immense patronage, will be Democratic by six to one. All the canal engineers with their staff of inspectors are under the direct control of the State Engineer and Surveyor.

CONNERS MAY NOW SIT ON HEARST'S STEPS.

BUFFALO, Nov. 7.—Democratic State Chairman W. J. Conners made an address to the General Committee of Erie County on the night before election, in which he spoke exultingly of the big plums in store for Democrats—if they got the chance to spend the one hundred million dollar canal improvement fund. After predicting Hearst's election, Conners is quoted as saying: "I have Hearst's word for it that the day after election his Independence League goes out of existence and Hearst will do business through the Democratic organization of Erie County, so far as Erie County patronage is concerned."

You fellows ain't got no idea what that State patronage amounts to. It's tremendous—say, if you ever get in and get that patronage, all hell won't get us out again. Now, as I said before, Hearst told me twenty times I told me once that he will do the Erie County business through his organization, and I want to tell you that if he don't I'll go down a set of the steps until he does."

LOSES IN CHEMUNG.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Corrected return, still incomplete, indicate that an offical vote will be necessary to decide the election of member of Assembly. The Democrats claim the defeat of Moreland, who was Republican floor leader last year.

Latest returns give Deemer, Democratic and Independence League, for Assembly, 21 over Moreland.
